

Ww

is for wax.

Wally had a secret thought
That he just had to tell.
Wendy sat four desks away—
He did not want to yell.

So Wally started thinking.
At first he had no clue
How he could send the message,
So Wendy would know, too.

How did our Wally do it
So no one else could see?
To send a secret message,
Some candle wax is key!

WAX 'N' WASH

What You'll Need:

- sheet of white paper
- white candle
- watercolor paint
- watercolor paintbrush
- water

1. Write a secret message with your candle.

WARNING: It will be very hard to see what you are drawing, but do the best you can.

2. Cover your message with watercolor paint.

3. Can you read the message?
