

Check out the new ACS Speaker Directory!

ACS is proud to present the ACS Speaker Directory, a new and easy way for local section leaders to access a diverse range of speakers for their in-person, virtual, hybrid, and asynchronous events.

This new resource will provide members of the directory with even more opportunities to share their knowledge with other chemists.

View the speakers in the directory
at acs.org/speakerdirectory

Log in with your ACS ID and password to access the directory.

ATTENTION:

Chemists looking for opportunities to share your expertise and to build your speaking engagement résumé – The ACS Speaker Directory was built for you!

Advantages of creating a profile:

- Gain visibility on an international level
- Share your proficiency
- Grow your professional network

This new resource will provide members of the directory with even more opportunities to share their knowledge with other chemists.
