

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success
44th ACS Western Regional Meeting
Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>
<hr/>

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success

44th ACS Western Regional Meeting

Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?

Student Skills for Success
44th ACS Western Regional Meeting
Santa Clara, CA, October 4, 2013

Meet & Greet Challenge

Your challenge is to meet 10 new people. As you meet people, have them sign their name in one of the spaces below. When you have 10 new names, return the card to the registration table to enter a drawing for a door prize.

Bonus challenge: once you've filled your card, see how many people you can introduce to each other.

Name	Notes

Icebreaker suggestions

The following are some suggested questions to break the ice in the Meet & Greet Challenge. You may vary these or use other questions if they feel more comfortable.

Tip: be sure to focus on finding out the needs of the other person. Perhaps you can help!

- What work do you do? (Alt: what are you studying/planning to study?)
- What is the most exciting thing going on at work or school right now?
- What is the most exciting thing you've heard from the scientific world lately?
- How long have you been in your current position? How did you get there?
- What is the strangest or funniest thing that happened to you at work/school? How did you handle it?
- Do you have a mentor? What have you learned from him/her?
- What characteristics do you value most in in your colleagues?
- What challenges are you facing at work/school?
- If you could do any job in the world, what would you do?