Ernesto is an egg cook.
He cooks them everyday.
He scrambles some and boils some,
Then puts the rest away.

He stores the eggs together,
The boiled ones with the raw.
Mixing up his egg supply—
A breaking of EGG LAW.

With all the eggs together,
Ernesto now must guess
Which eggs are the boiled ones,
Or risk a scrambled mess!

What You'll Need:
- hard-boiled egg
- raw egg
- 2 cereal bowls

1. Have partner place an egg in each bowl. Don't watch!

2. Spin each egg. Which one do you think spins faster?

3. Stop the spin with your finger, then quickly take your finger off. What happens?

4. Do you think you know which egg is which? Crack one open and see!
