

ACS PROGRAM  BOX

POST YOUR PICS OR ASK A QUESTION!

The Red Poppy was first created as a symbol of Remembrance by an American teacher, Miss Moina Belle Michael. She drew her inspiration from the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by a Canadian doctor, Lt. Col. John McCrae serving on the front lines in WWI, treating victims of gas attacks.

Discover the full story!
bit.ly/PoppyLady

\ Link is case sensitive*

ACS PROGRAM  BOX

POST YOUR PICS OR ASK A QUESTION!

The Red Poppy was first created as a symbol of Remembrance by an American teacher, Miss Moina Belle Michael. She drew her inspiration from the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by a Canadian doctor, Lt. Col. John McCrae serving on the front lines in WWI, treating victims of gas attacks.

Discover the full story!
bit.ly/PoppyLady

\ Link is case sensitive*

ACS PROGRAM  BOX

POST YOUR PICS OR ASK A QUESTION!

The Red Poppy was first created as a symbol of Remembrance by an American teacher, Miss Moina Belle Michael. She drew her inspiration from the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by a Canadian doctor, Lt. Col. John McCrae serving on the front lines in WWI, treating victims of gas attacks.

Discover the full story!
bit.ly/PoppyLady

\ Link is case sensitive*