ATTENDEE RESOURCES

More resources at ACS.org

Attendees with Disabilities
We make every effort to make our national meetings accessible to people with disabilities. If you require special assistance during the meeting sessions, please contact Brenda Philpot at b_philpot@acs.org or stop by the attendee registration desk for assistance.

Parent/Infant Room
For convenience and privacy, ACS has designated a room for parents in the BCEC for nursing, feeding, and changing infants. Please see the staff at the Information Booth in the North Lobby for further information.

Childcare Services
Camp ACS will be available to all meeting attendees free of charge for children. Children will participate in age-appropriate activities including arts & crafts and active games in a safe environment while you enjoy the meeting, if space is available. Please note: For your child’s safety, the location of Camp ACS will not be communicated until your registration is confirmed.

Age: 2 years (and potty trained) - 16 years
Sunday, August 19, 2018 - Thursday, August 23, 2018
Hours: 7 AM – 6 PM

Lounges to Recharge & Network
We have designated areas at the National Meeting to help you take a break. Come relax, connect with friends, network, and charge your electronic devices in the ACS Resource Hub in the North Lobby or in the Expo & Career Fair at the Recharge & Social Media Lounge.
