The ACS Women Chemists of Color Program aims to broaden awareness of challenges for women of color found at the intersection of gender and ethnicity; to gather more data about women chemists of color; and, to provide a forum for building community.

Learn more about this program

Network with other women chemists of color

Enjoy refreshments

Thursday, November 7, 2013

Forum:
3:00 pm — 5:30 pm
Howard University,
Founders Library, Browsing Room
http://wcocforum.eventbrite.com/

Networking Reception:
6:00 pm — 8:00 pm
American Chemical Society
1155 16th St NW, Washington, DC 20036
https://wcocreception.eventbrite.com/

Shuttle service will be provided.

Please RSVP.